

FAMILY VALUES @ WORK

is celebrating

13 YEARS OF WINS!

WASHINGTON introduces a bill for minimum paid leave for illness, family care, bereavement, or vacation

MAINE extends unemployment insurance to include part-time workers

CALIFORNIA launches the country's first paid family leave program

MAINE passes the Act to Care for Families expanding use of paid sick time to care for sick family members

SAN FRANCISCO wins the country's first paid sick days law at the ballot

WASHINGTON reintroduces a bill for minimum paid leave for illness, family care, bereavement, or vacation

WASHINGTON expands FMLA to include domestic partners

WASHINGTON passes the Family Leave Insurance Act

MAINE expands FMLA to allow for intermittent leave and to include domestic partners and their children

NEW JERSEY wins Family Leave Insurance

WASHINGTON, DC wins the
Accrued Sick and Safe Leave Act

MILWAUKEE wins Paid Sick Leave at the ballot
(later overturned by state preemption law)

COLORADO passes Workplace
Accommodations for Nursing Mothers

MAINE expands FMLA to cover siblings

PHILADELPHIA passes unpaid
domestic violence leave

WASHINGTON appropriates general funds for the start-up of their Family Leave Insurance program
(implementation frozen when economy collapsed)

- COLORADO passes Parental Leave Act allowing use of FMLA leave for school activities
- NORTH CAROLINA introduces the Healthy Families and Healthy Workplaces Act and holds the first legislative committee hearings in the South on earned paid sick days legislation
- WISCONSIN expands definition of family under FMLA to include domestic partners and parents-in-law
- COLORADO passes unemployment insurance reforms covering more part-time, women and low-wage workers
- GEORGIA expands unemployment insurance to include part-time workers
- ILLINOIS introduces the Healthy Workplaces Act
- WASHINGTON expands the Family Care Act allowing use of any paid leave to care for domestic partners in addition to children, spouse, parents, and grandparents

NORTH CAROLINA appoints a Joint Select Committee on Work and Family Balance with a broad agenda including earned paid sick days, FMLA expansions, and family leave insurance

CALIFORNIA wins health insurance coverage for women while on pregnancy disability leave

CONNECTICUT wins the country's first statewide paid sick days law

PHILADELPHIA passes earned sick days; two votes shy of overturning mayoral veto

PHILADELPHIA adds earned sick days to its city's minimum wage and benefits standard

LONG BEACH wins living wage and paid sick days for hotel workers at the ballot

ORANGE COUNTY runs the first successful campaign to collect enough petitions to put paid sick days on the ballot

MICHIGAN introduces paid sick days bill for the first time

CALIFORNIA wins workplace accommodations and job protection for victims of domestic violence

CALIFORNIA expands Paid Family Leave to include care for additional family members

SAN FRANCISCO passes a “Right to Request” Family Friendly Workplace Ordinance

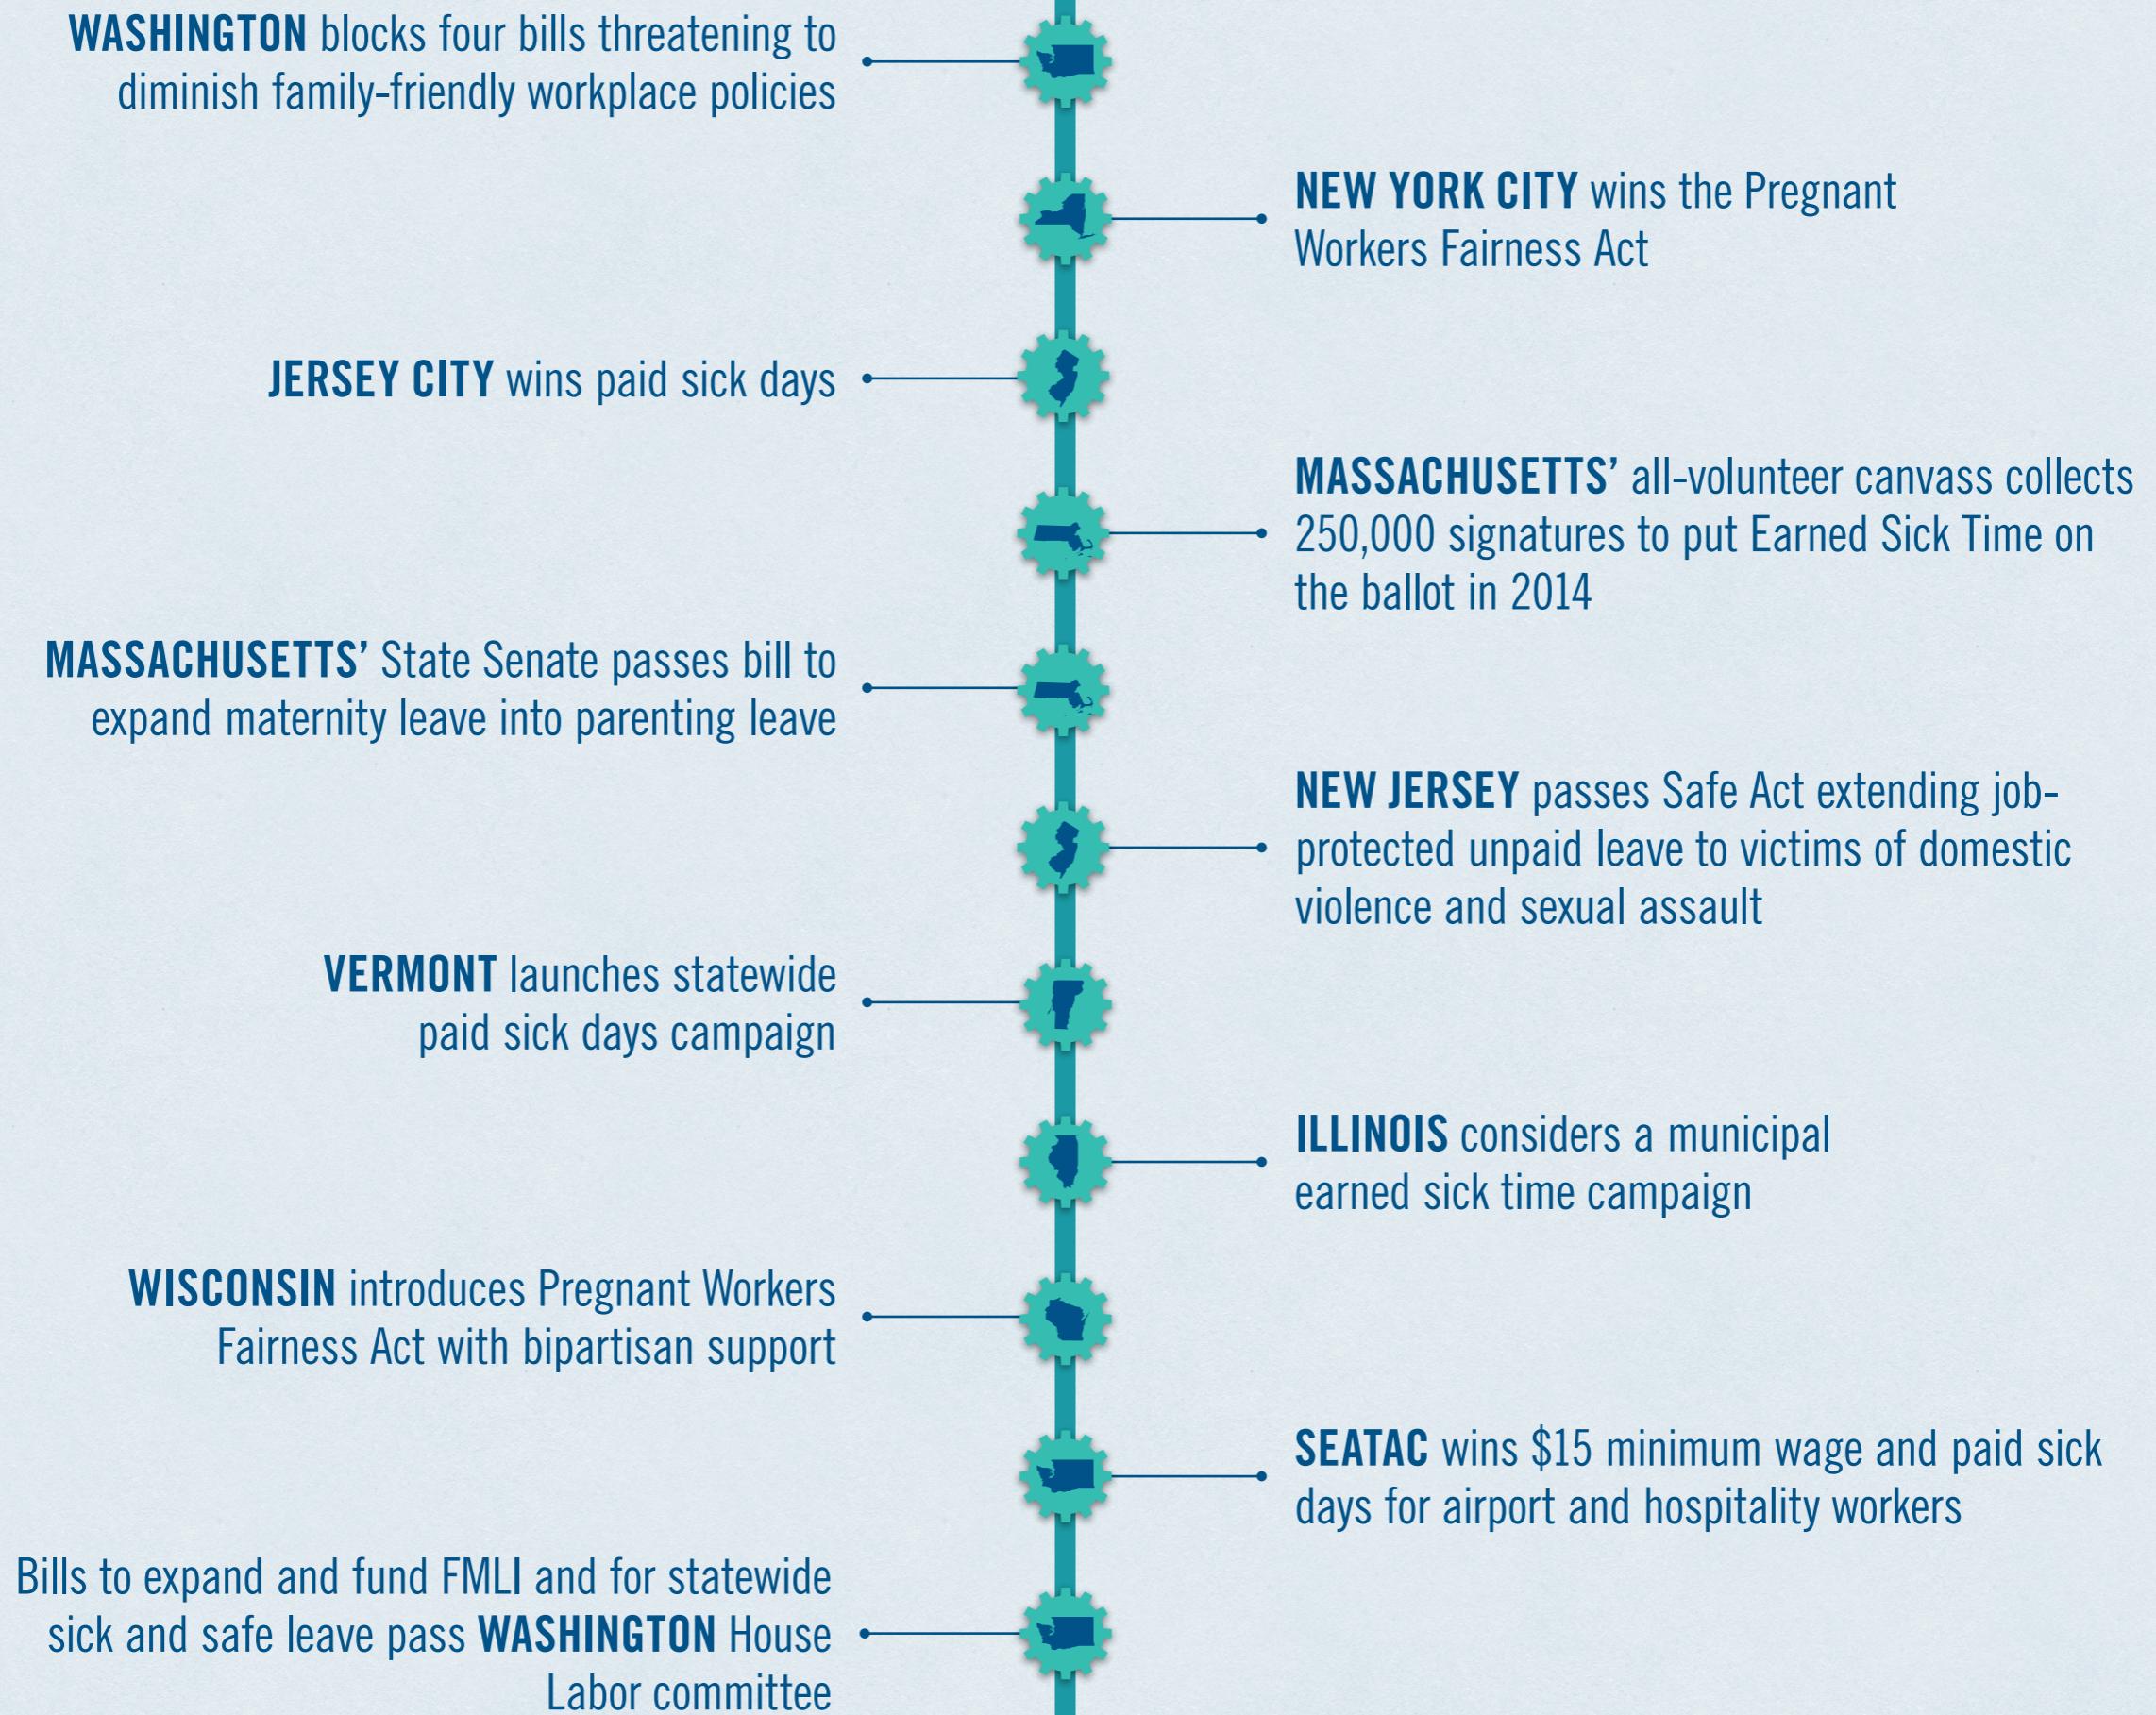

VERMONT wins the country’s first “Right to Request” flexible work arrangement law

CONNECTICUT stops bills threatening to weaken its paid sick days law

COLORADO passes, with bipartisan support, the Family Care Act bill expanding FMLA coverage to domestic partners and civil unions

MINNESOTA expands its Parenting Leave Act allowing those with paid sick days to care for additional family members

- SAN DIEGO passes paid sick days
- CALIFORNIA passes a paid sick days bill covering 6.5 million workers
- OAKLAND passes Measure FF—$12.25 minimum wage and 5 to 9 paid sick days
- LOS ANGELES increases minimum wage to $15.37 for hotel workers and provides up to 12 paid sick days
- SAN FRANCISCO Board of Supervisors/City Council votes unanimously to pass the Retail Workers Bill of Rights—Predictable Scheduling
- COLORADO introduces the FAMLI Act, a family and medical leave insurance bill, which passes the Senate State Affairs Committee
- CONNECTICUT becomes the first state to raise the minimum wage to $10.10 by 2017

CONNECTICUT task force studies and issues a report on paid family leave

WASHINGTON, DC expands paid sick days law to include tipped workers and wins $11.50 minimum wage

WASHINGTON, DC approves $150,000 to fund 2 positions in the Department of Employment Services to enforce paid sick days expansion

FLORIDA passes non-enforceable earned sick time in Orange County with 64% of vote

CHICAGO City Council passes increase in minimum wage, including coverage for domestic workers, starting at $10 in July and rising to $13 in 2019, followed by a COLA

CONNECTICUT research on paid sick days law shows it is working and not negatively impacting businesses

WASHINGTON, DC begins providing 8 weeks paid family leave to 30,000 local government employees

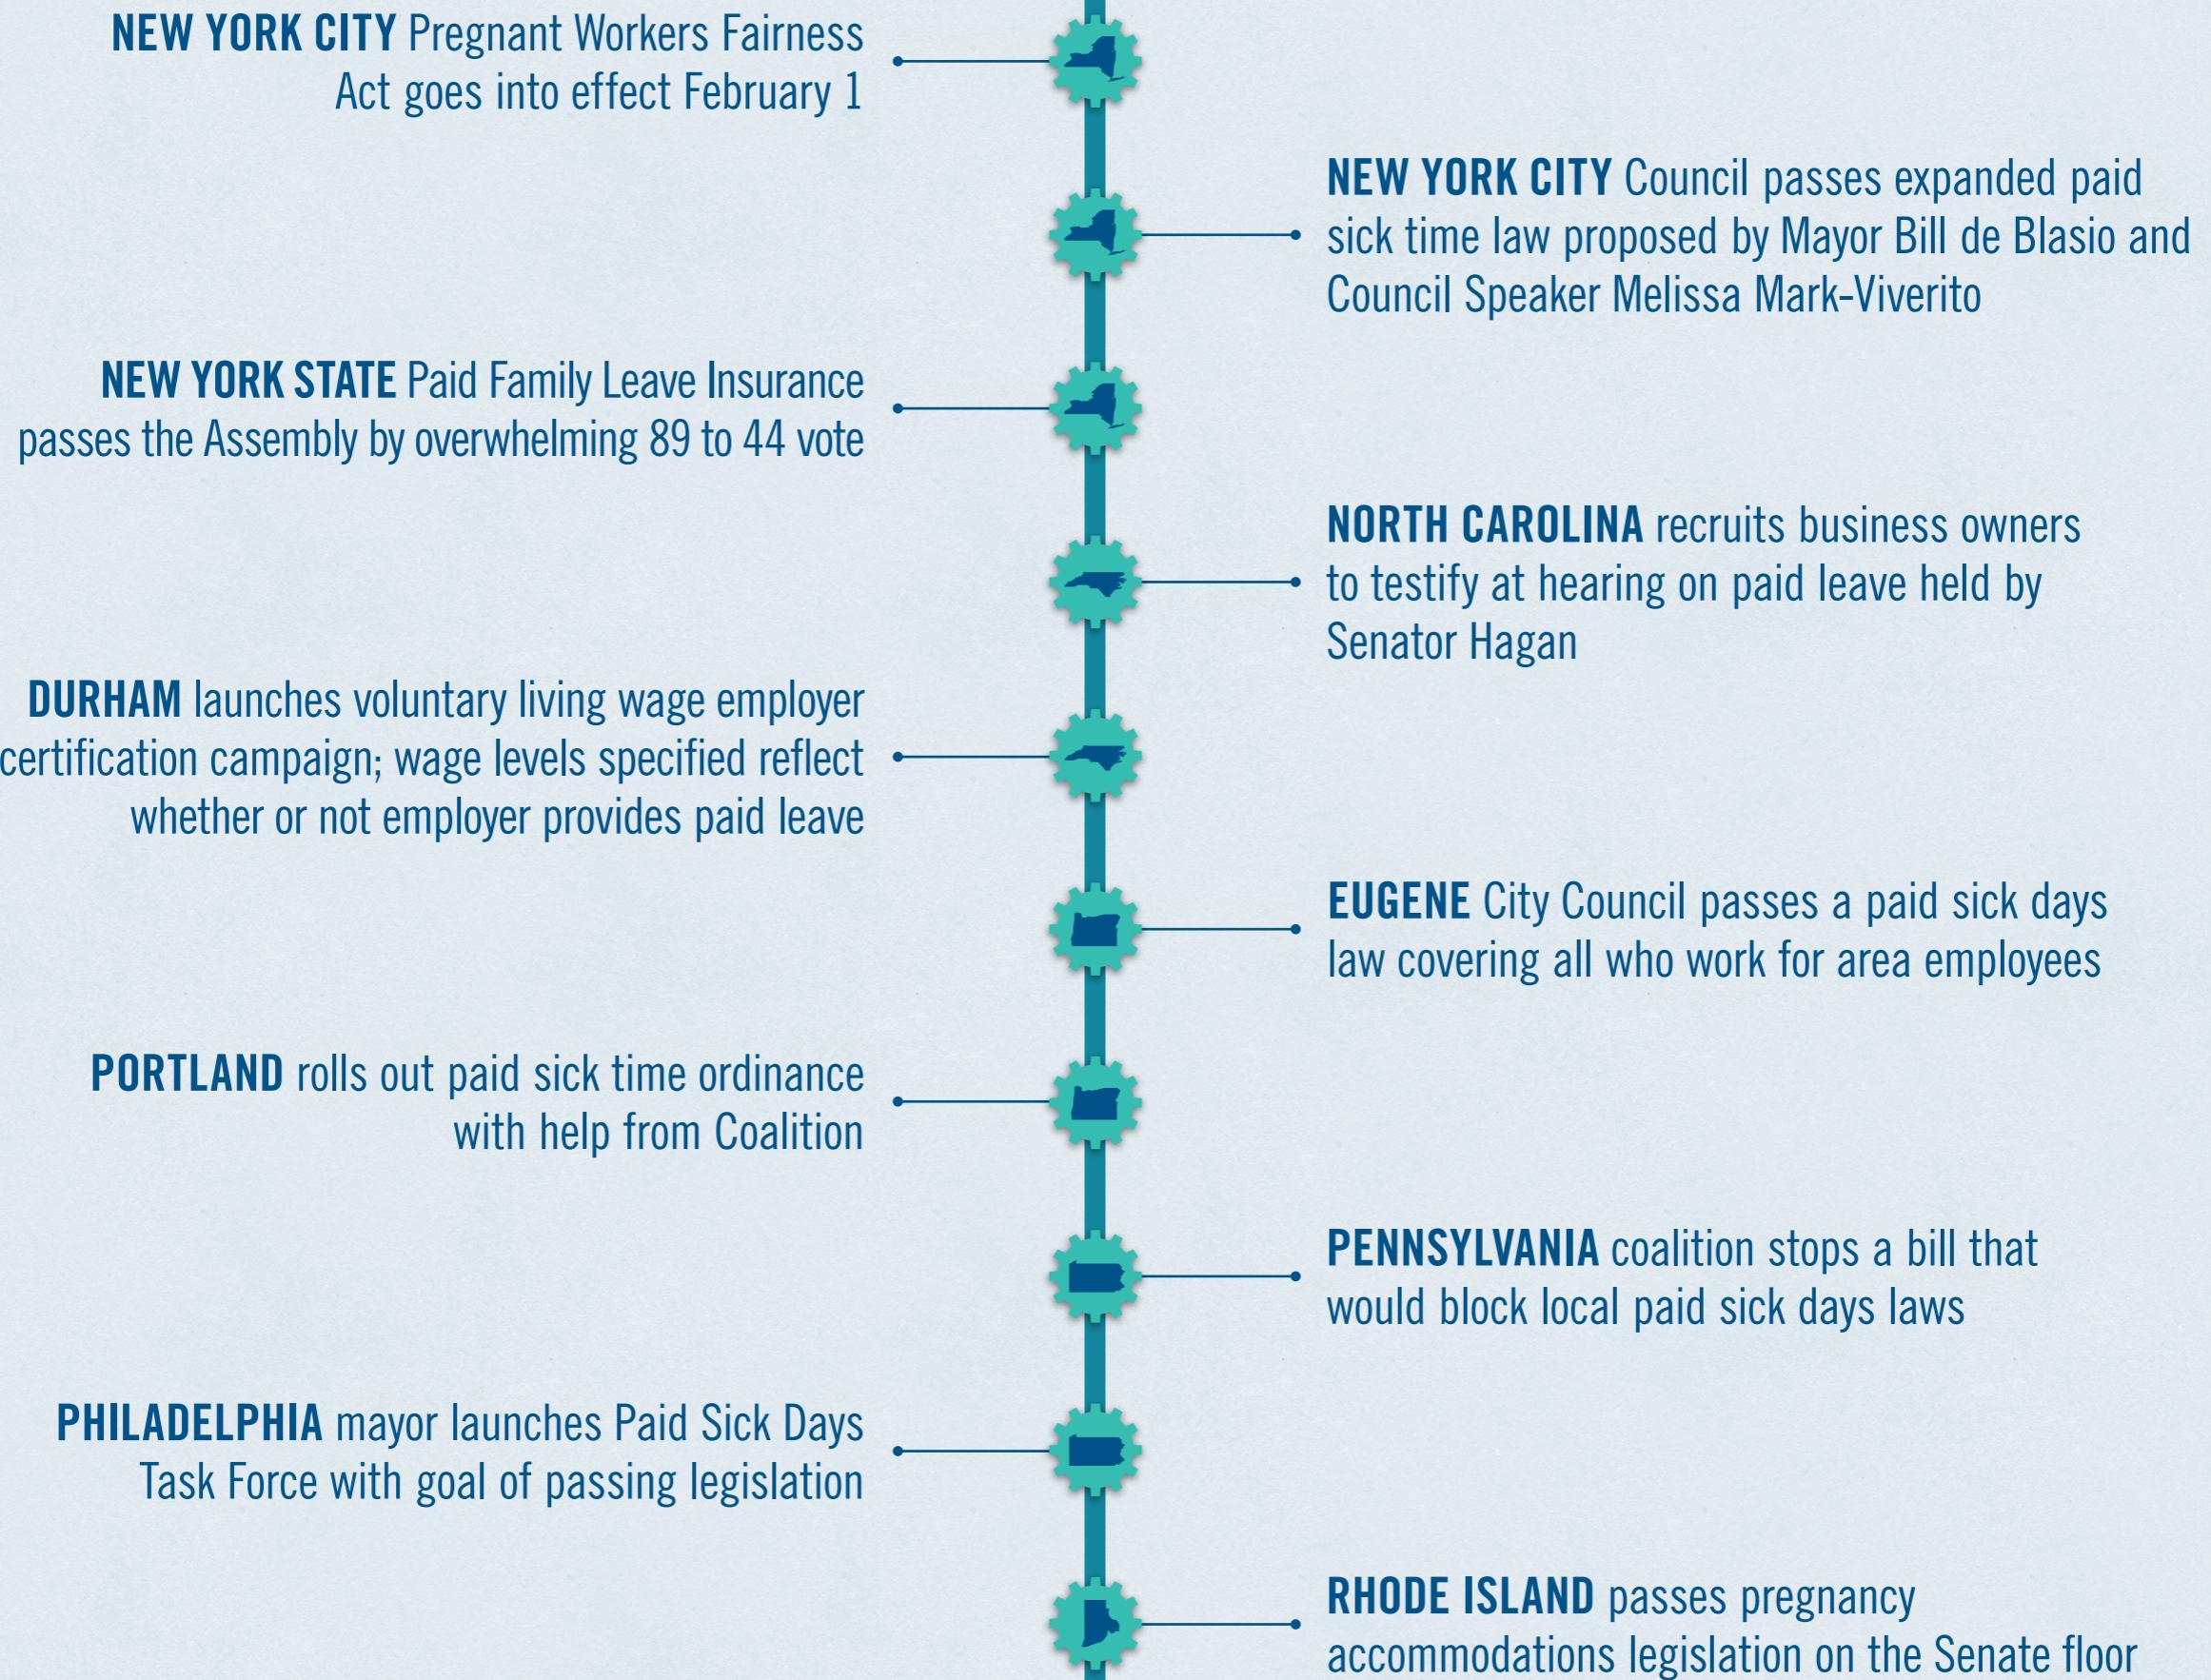

WASHINGTON, DC'S Department of Employment Services is awarded $96,281 from the US Department of Labor to study the benefits of a paid family and medical leave program

GEORGIA introduces Family Care Act with bipartisan support; will allow workers to use earned sick time to care for family members

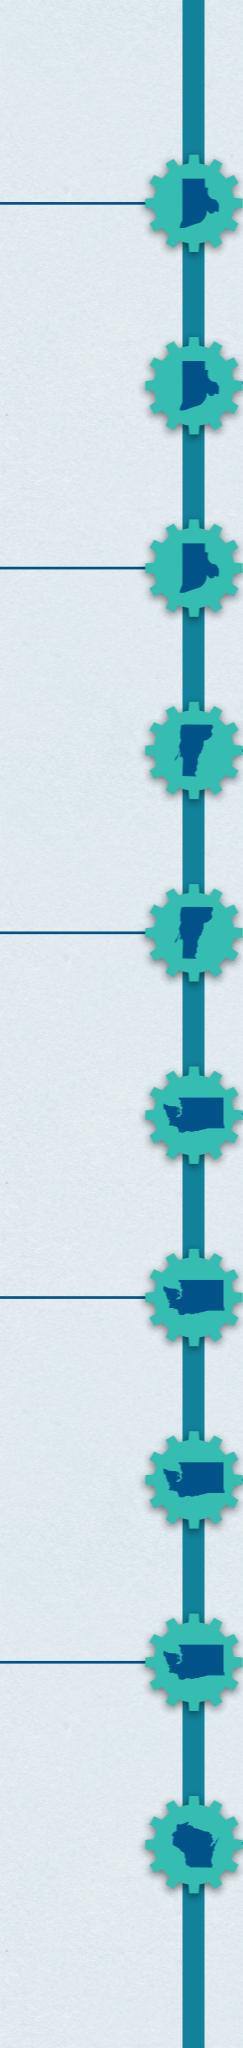

CHICAGO City Council introduces earned sick days ordinance; question asking whether voters support it will be on the February municipal election ballot

RHODE ISLAND is awarded $161,417 from the US Department of Labor to study the benefits of a paid family and medical leave program for the state

RHODE ISLAND Temporary Caregivers Insurance goes into effect

PROVIDENCE & CENTRAL FALLS pass ordinances to strengthen protections for pregnant women

VERMONT Earned Sick Days bill is introduced in House with 35 sponsors; Senate bill with 10 sponsors; passes House Committee on General Housing and Military Affairs

WASHINGTON coalition stops bill in the Senate that would block local wins on paid sick days and minimum wage

SEATTLE City Council approves funds for new labor standards enforcement division to strengthen enforcement of paid sick and safe leave and minimum wage laws

VERMONT Legislative Study Committee produces recommendations for a paid family leave program

WASHINGTON Paid Sick and Safe Leave bill passes the State House

SEATTLE City Council includes funds in 2015 budget to implement paid parental leave for city employees (following recommendations of the Gender Pay Equity Task Force)

MILWAUKEE Council increases city living wage from $9.59 to $10.10 in September and in March 2015 will raise it to $10.88

MILWAUKEE Raise Up MKE coalition wins living wage at county level for contract employees and stops a preemption bill from being introduced at the state level

MILWAUKEE “Ban the Box” campaign is organizing to remove “Have you ever been convicted in the courts?” from employment applications within the city

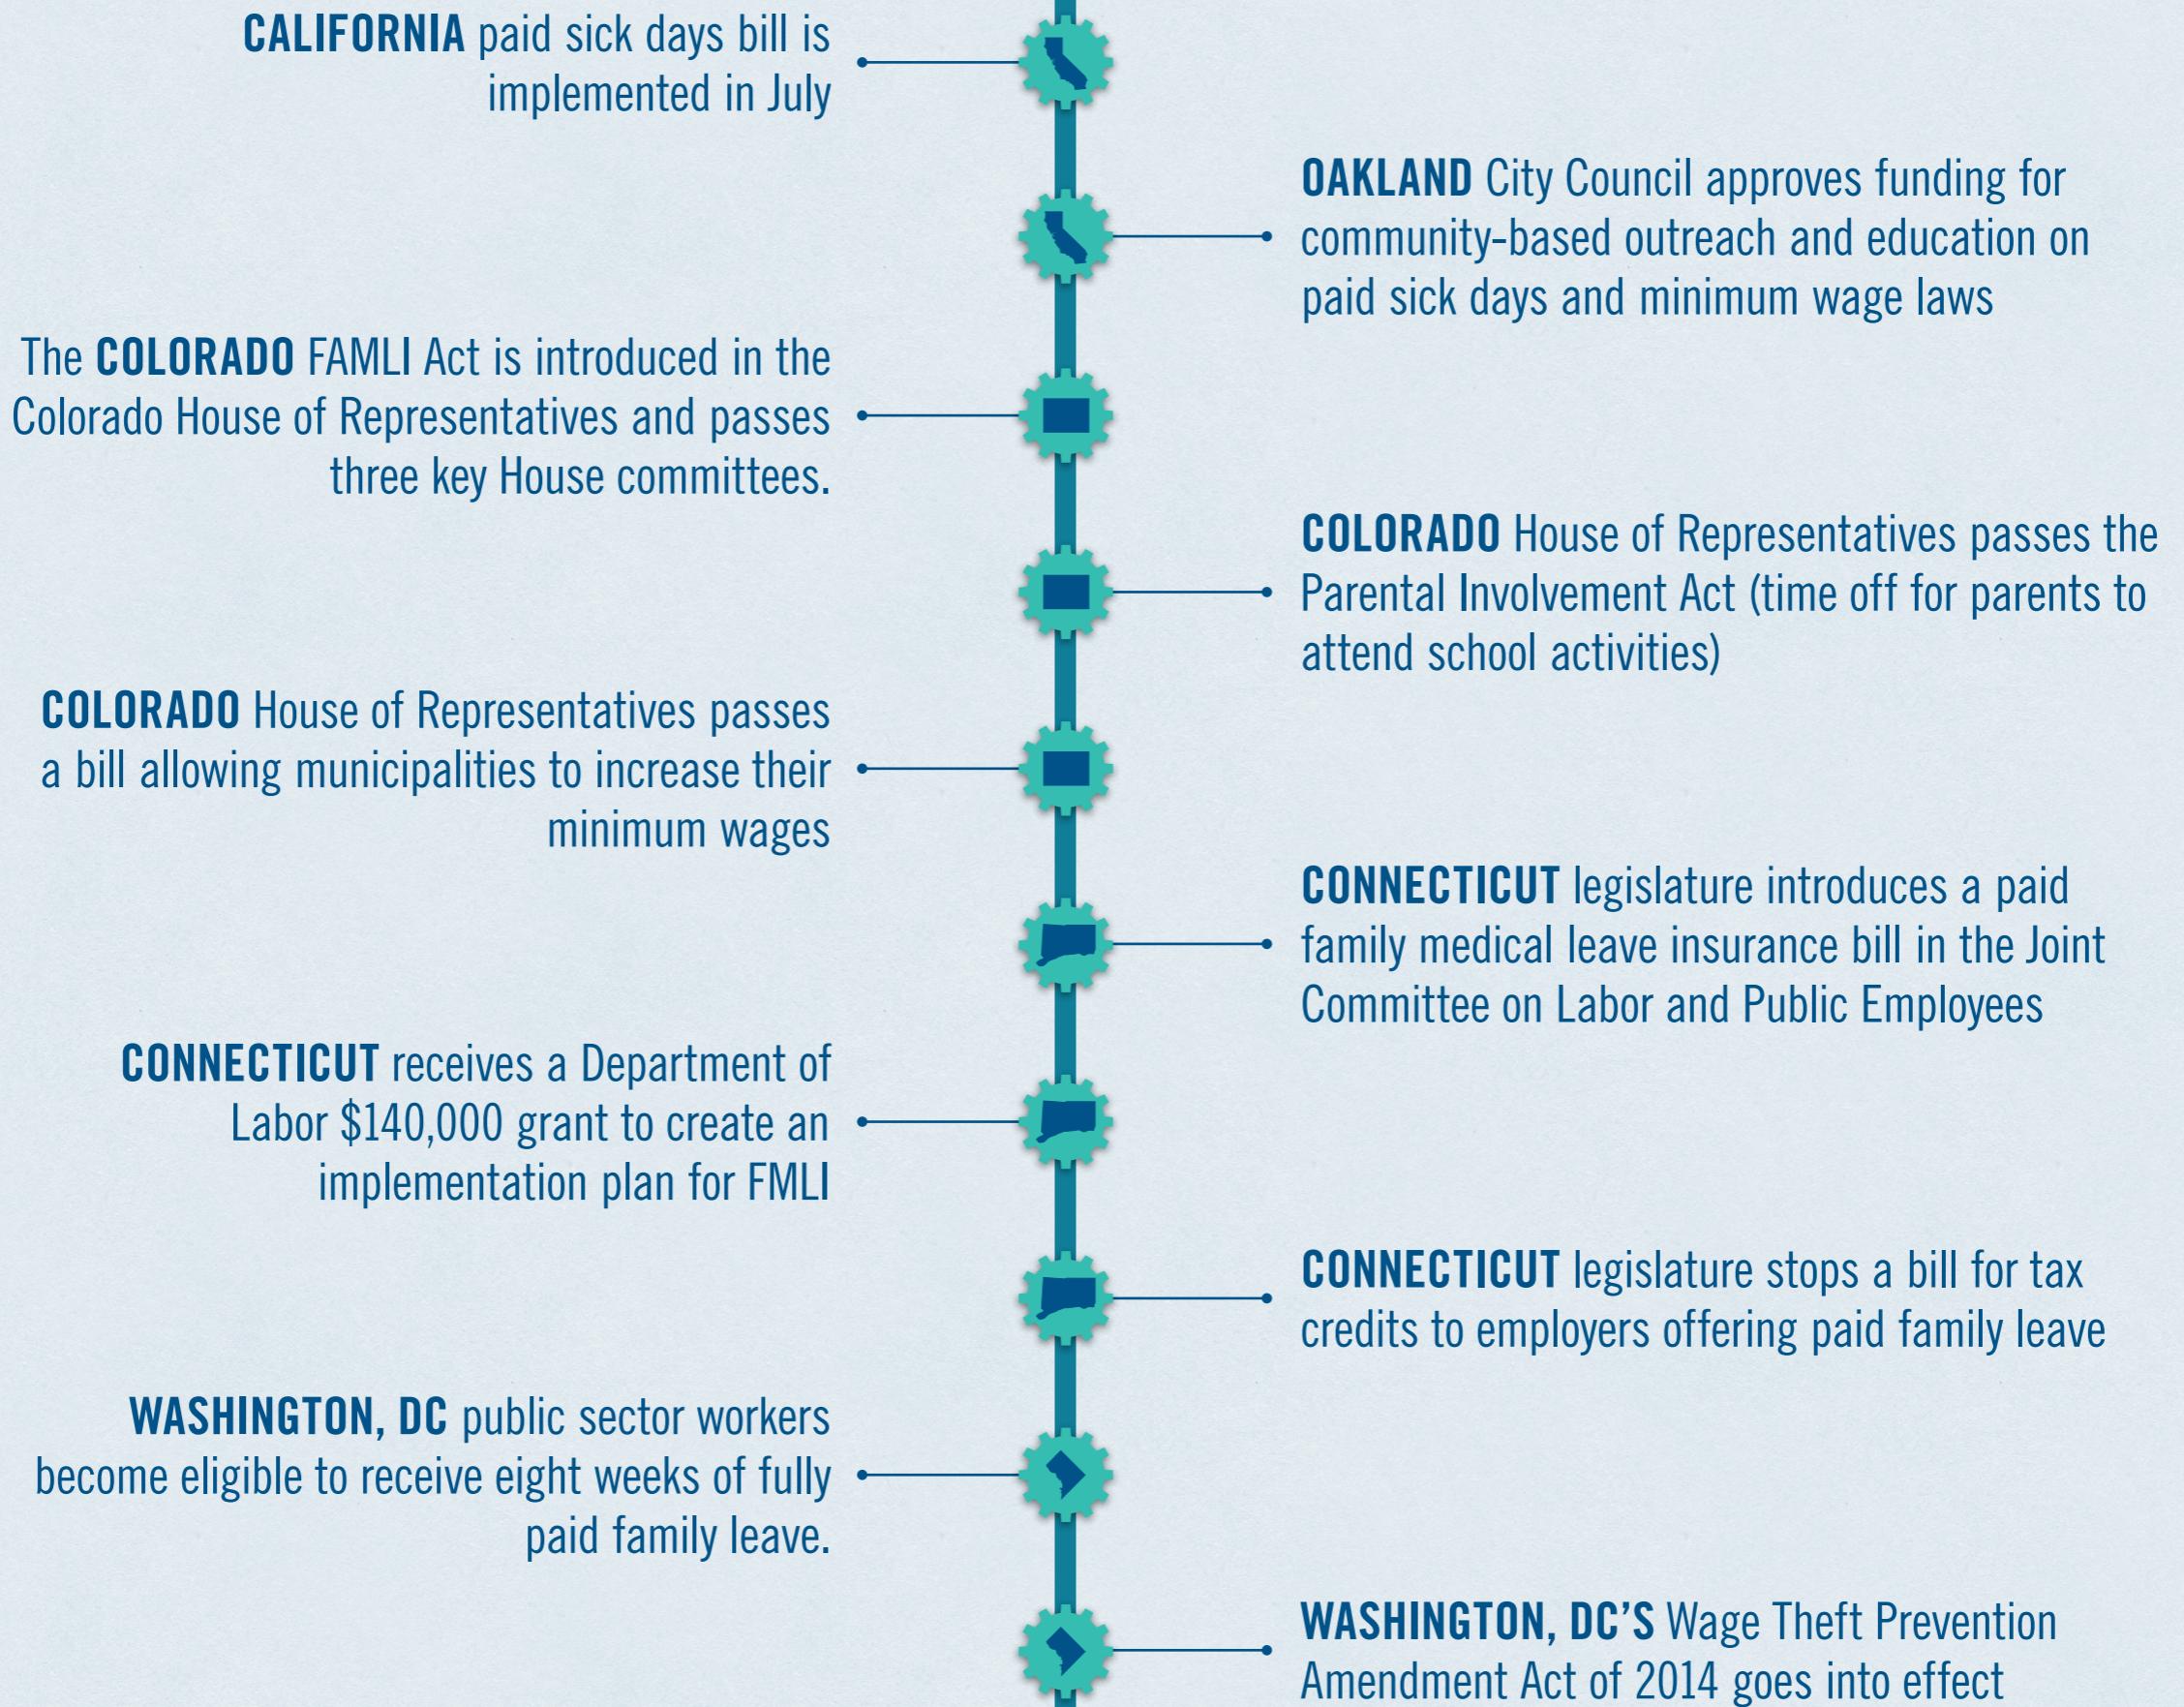

LOS ANGELES passes a bill to raise the minimum wage to $15 over several years

EMERYVILLE passes minimum wage and paid sick days

Bill to expand CALIFORNIA FMLA job protection to more workers passes, but Governor Brown vetoes

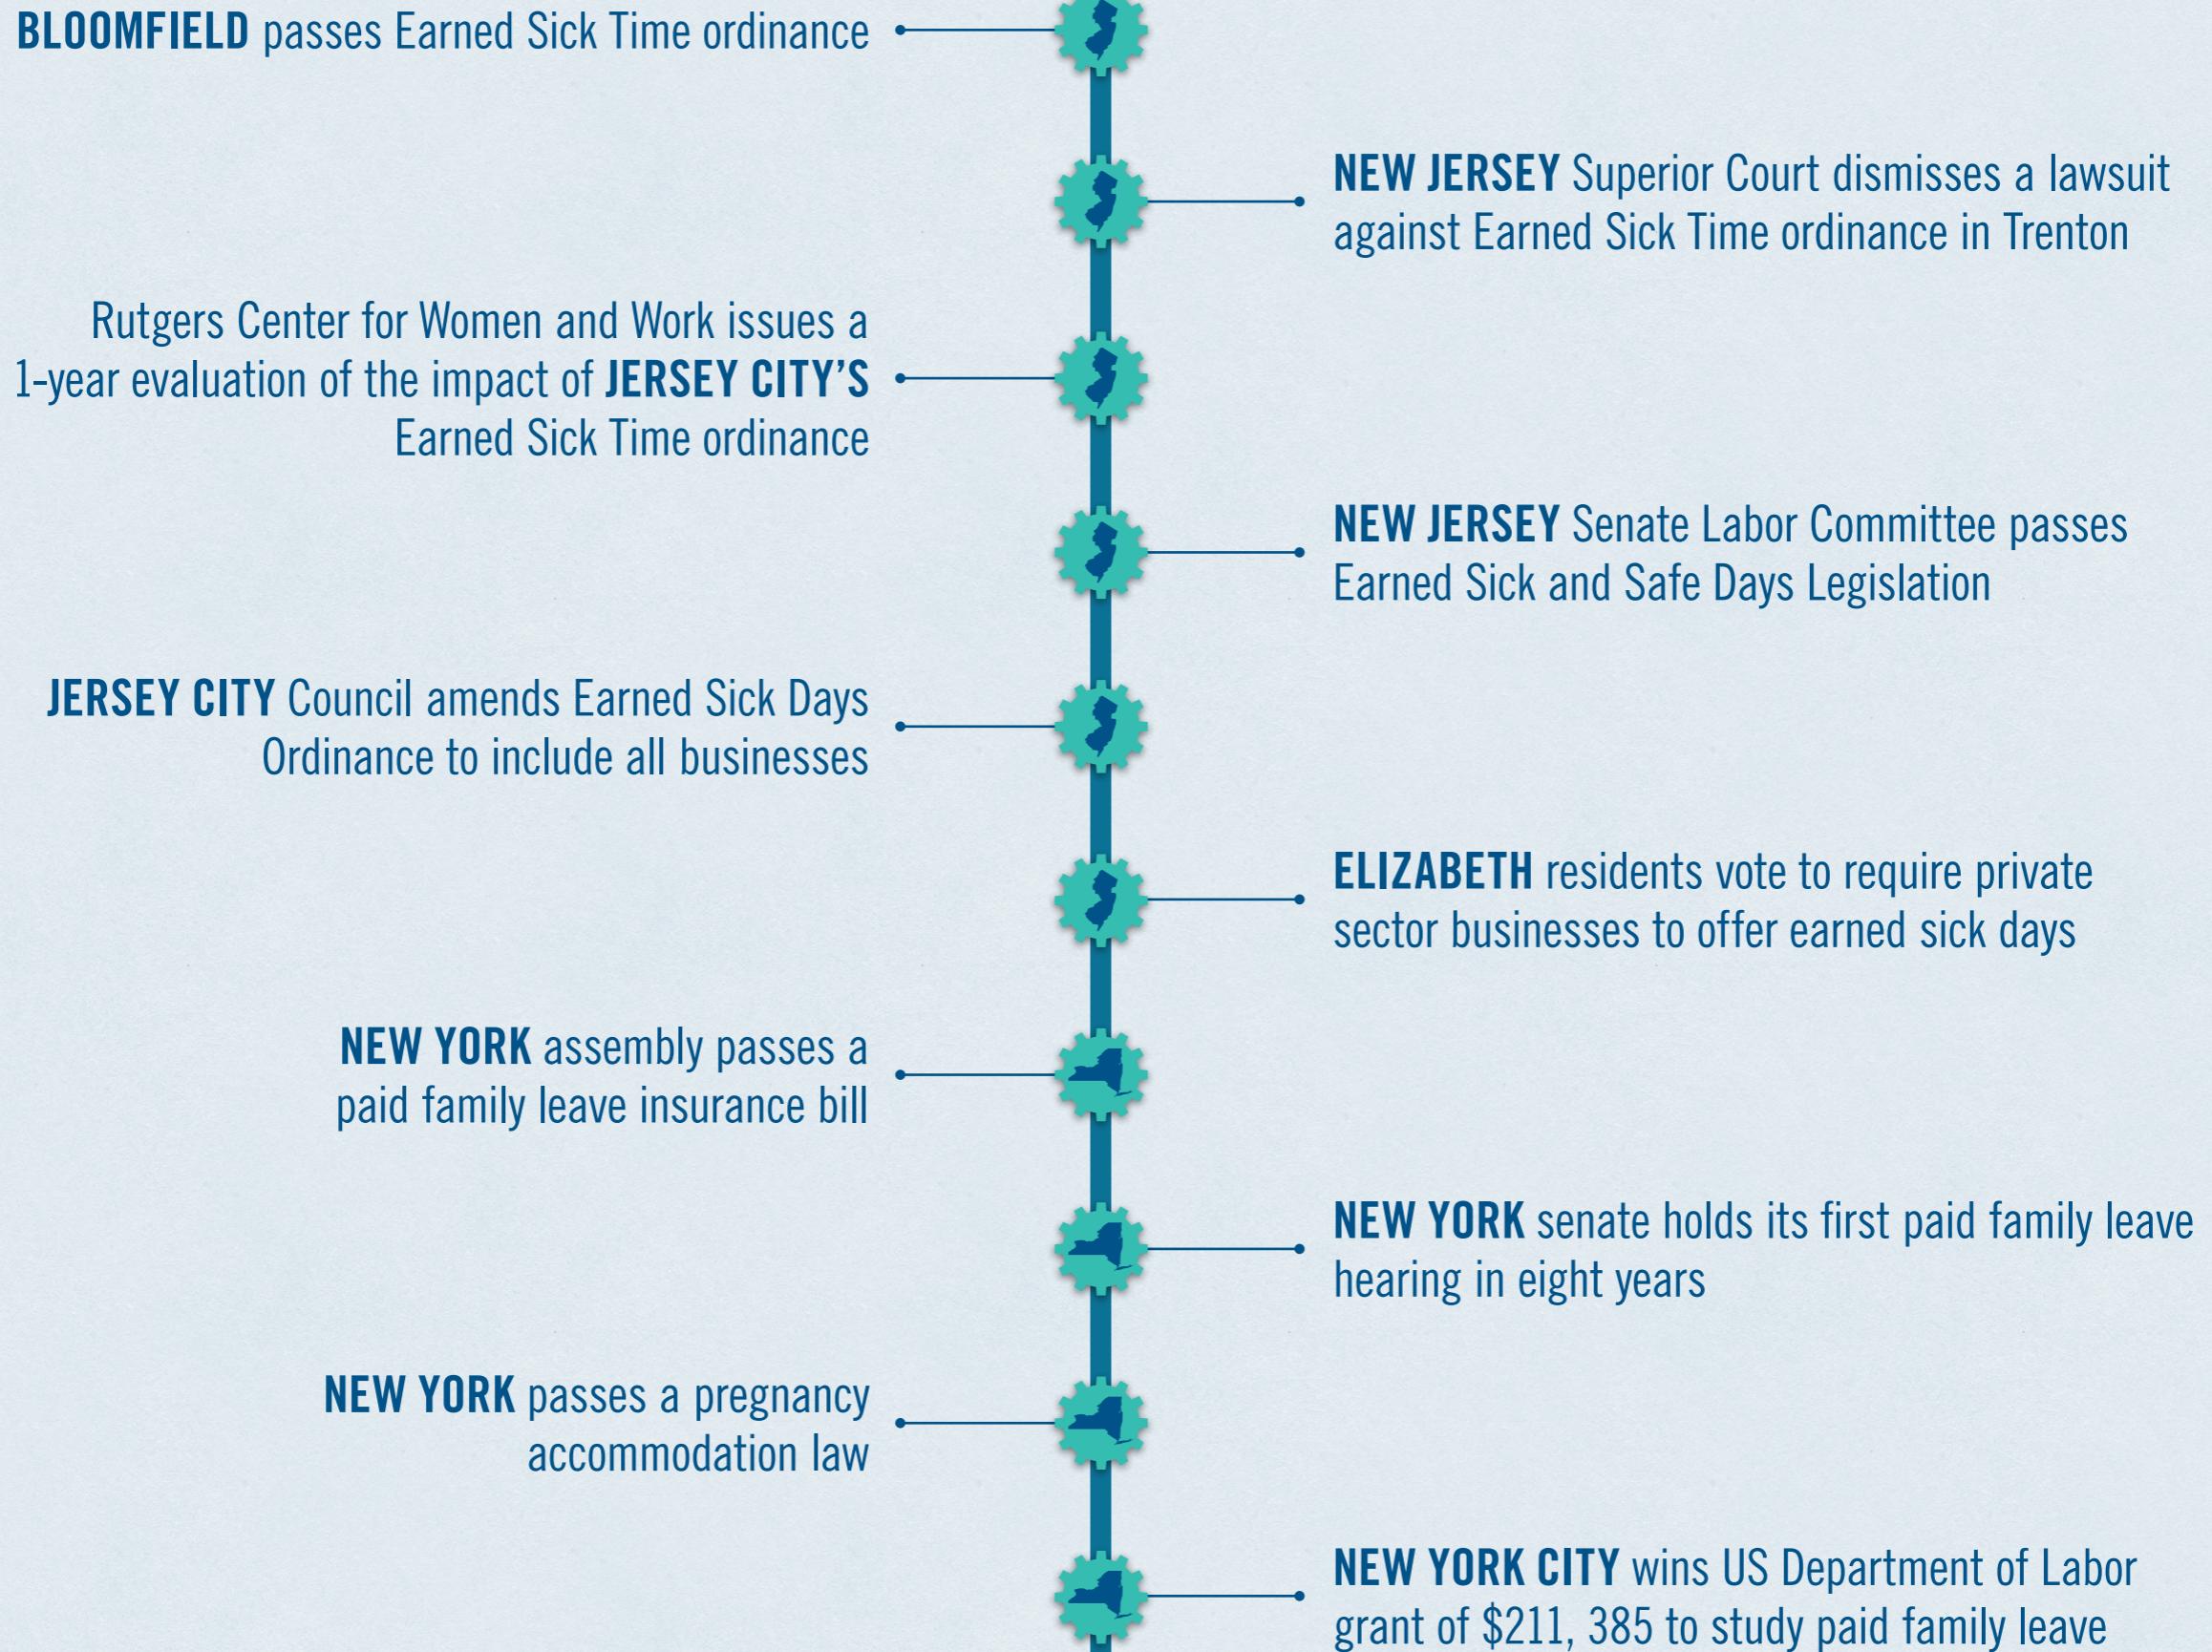

CALIFORNIA passes a bill extending job protection to parents facing a child care emergency or in-person sign-up

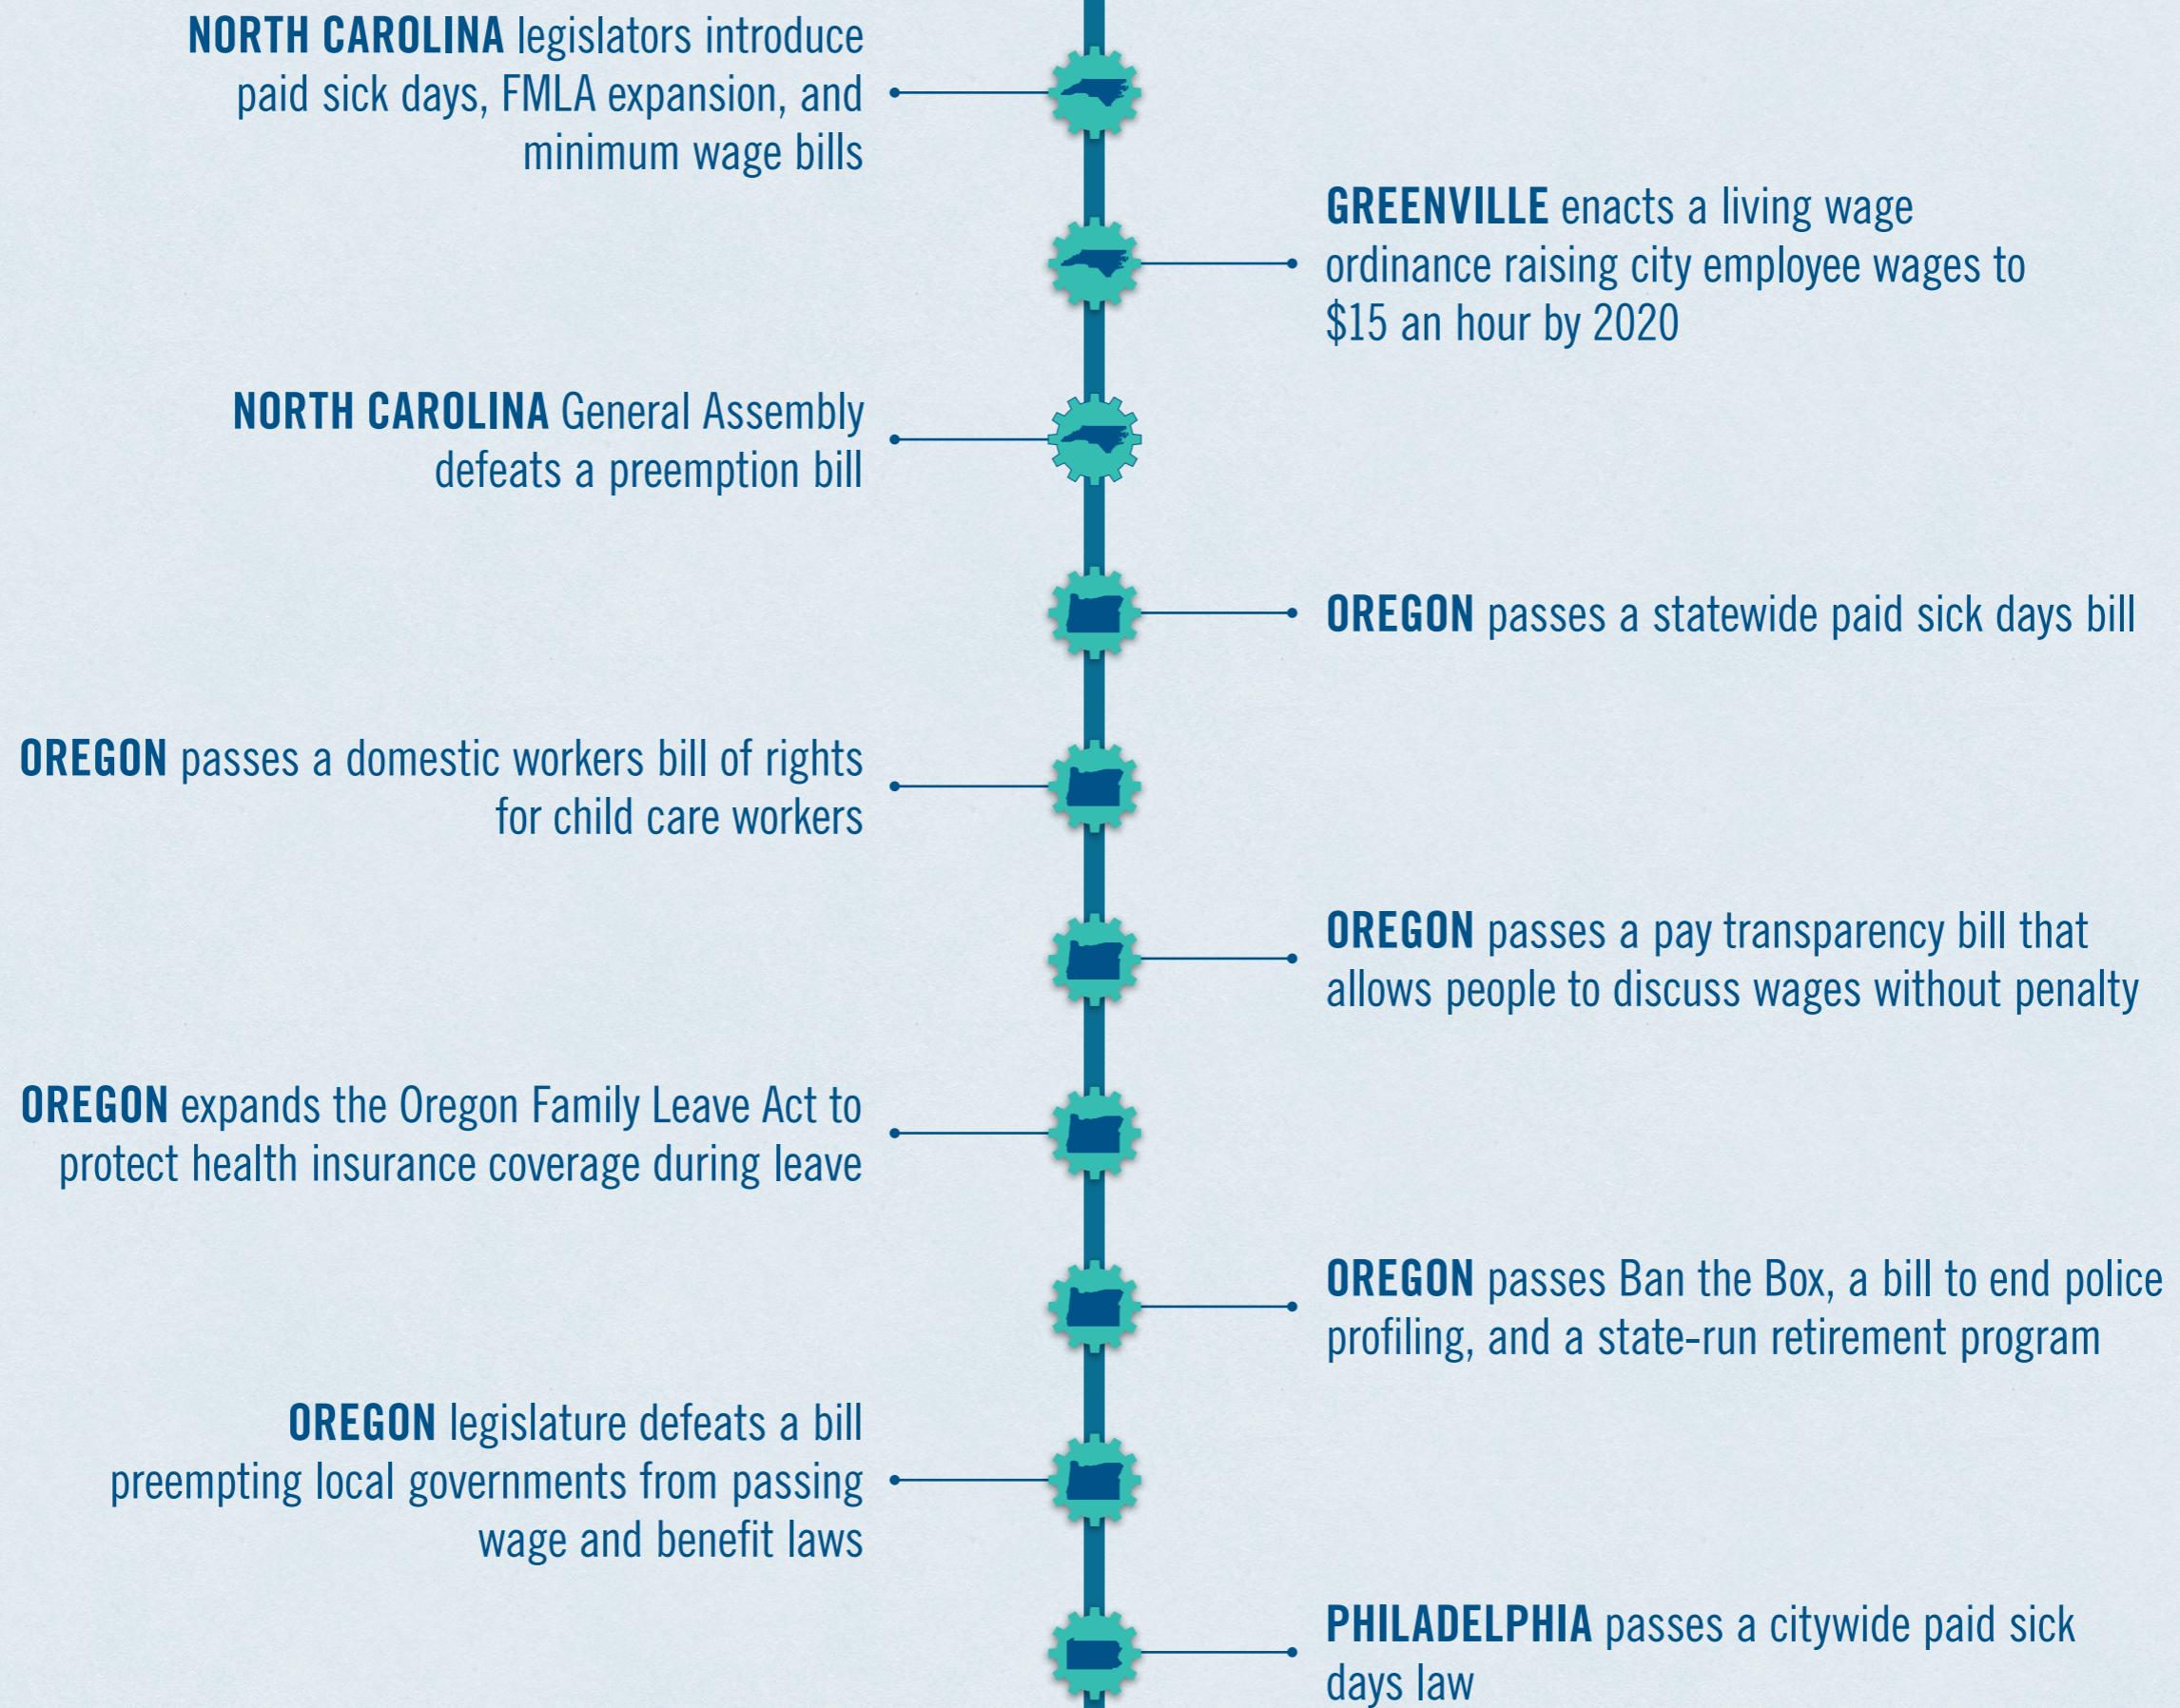

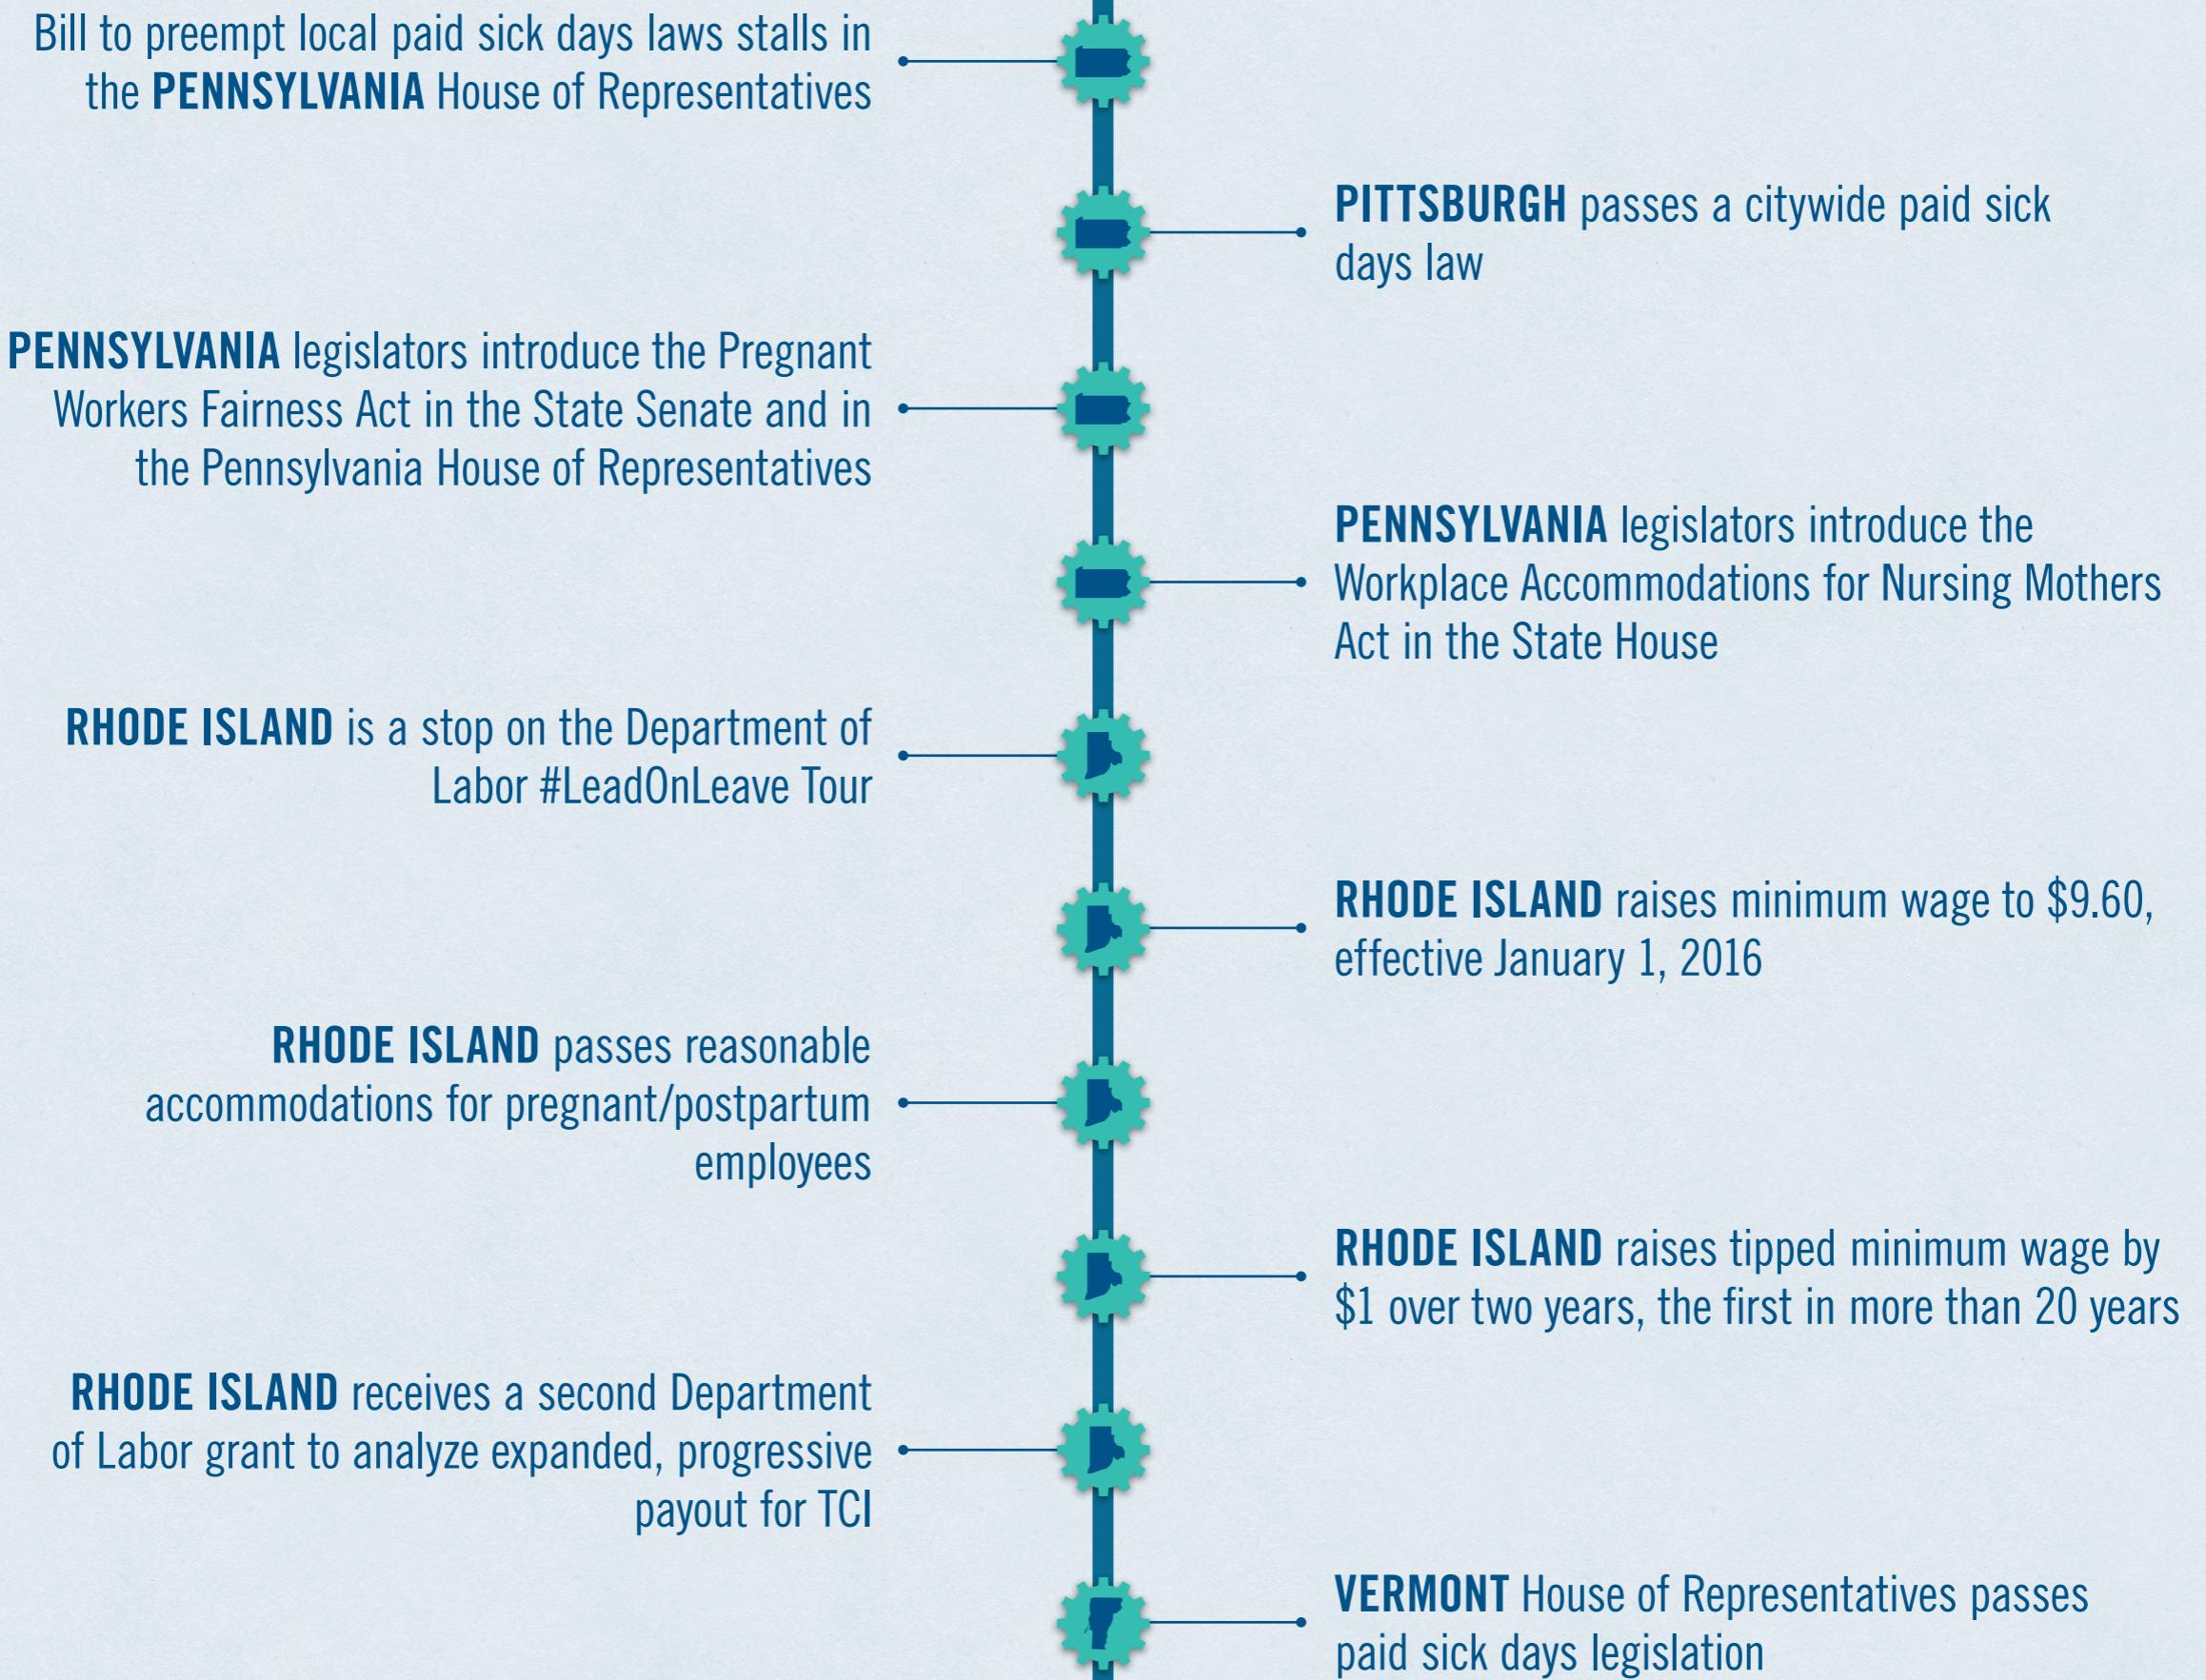

-
- WASHINGTON, DC'S minimum wage goes up to $10.50
- The coalition in ORLANDO introduces paid sick days language in living wage policy for city employees and contractors
- MIAMI area women's commissions pass resolutions urging the County Commission to support the Healthy Families Act and the FAMILY Act
- New coalition and business partners testify at a hearing for the GEORGIA Family Care Act
- ILLINOIS law for reasonable pregnancy accommodation goes into effect, covering employers of any size
- A majority of the WASHINGTON, DC City Council introduces The Universal Paid Leave Act of 2015, up to 16 weeks of paid family and medical leave
- MIAMI-DADE County Commission passes an ordinance reflecting CEDAW principles to improve status of women and girls
- A Senator from the majority party agrees to sponsor a Senate version of the GEORGIA Family Care Act
- Community Leadership Academy trains leaders in COLUMBUS and ATHENS
- CHICAGO ballot referendum generates 82% voter support to pass paid sick time

Champions introduce the WISCONSIN Family Insurance (WIFI) Program to make paid leave available to 2.6 million workers

5 council members from 3 cities, 22 state representatives and 10 state senators in ARIZONA files suit challenging the constitutionality of a bill preventing cities from passing earned sick days.

SAN FRANCISCO passes first fully paid family leave law, requiring employers to pay the difference between the state Paid Family Leave program and full pay.

LOS ANGELES City Council passes a 6-day paid sick days law with an inclusive definition of family, those related by blood or affinity.

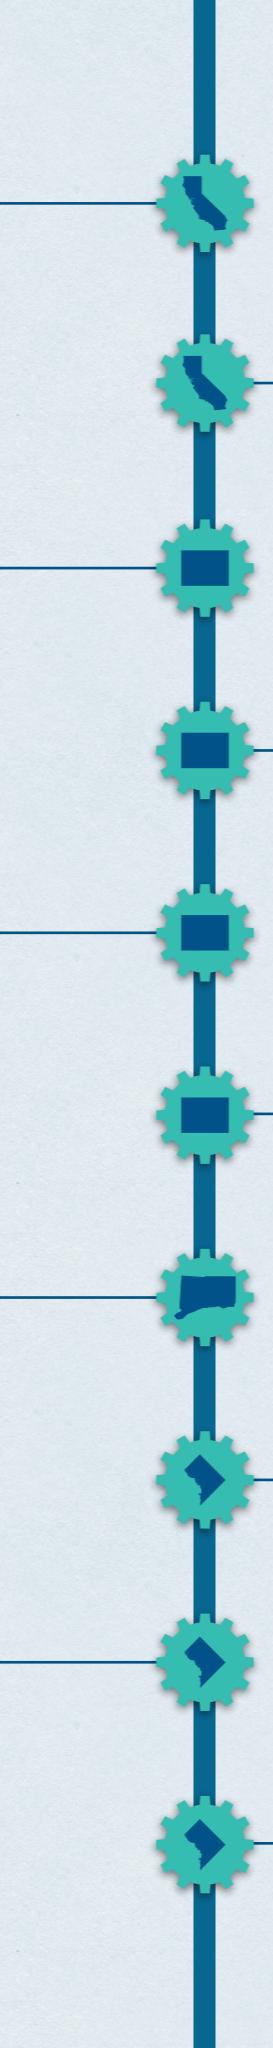

Champions introduce a statewide paid sick days bill in WISCONSIN.

ARIZONA ballot initiative, organized by the Arizonans for Fair Wages & Healthy Families Coalition, will guarantee state workers earned sick days and an incremental increase in the minimum wage.

CALIFORNIA Governor Brown signs a law raising the percentage of wage replacement for Paid Family Leave to 60% in general and 70% for low-wage workers.

SAN DIEGO passes a ballot initiative guaranteeing a higher minimum wage and 5 paid sick days.

BERKELEY passes a paid sick days law guaranteeing 9 paid sick days for workers in firms of 10 or more, 5 for those in smaller firms.

CALIFORNIA State Assembly passes the New Parent Leave Act, job protection for all private sector workers taking bonding leave.

COLORADO passes the Pregnant Workers Fairness Act with bipartisan support.

The COLORADO House passes the Parental Involvement Act, under which parents could use FMLA to attend school activities.

The City of DENVER receives a USDOL grant to study and improve paid family leave for its employees.

COLORADO voters pass a ballot initiative that will increase the state minimum wage to $12 by 2020.

The Labor Committee in CONNECTICUT passes the Paid Family and Medical Leave in Connecticut.

The WASHINGTON, DC Council hosts three hearings on the Universal Paid Leave Act. At the open/public hearing, 87% of witnesses testified in favor of the legislation.

WASHINGTON, DC Council unanimously votes to raise the minimum wage to $15/hour by 2020; tipped wages would increase from $2.77 to $5/hour over that same period of time.

The Hours and Scheduling Stability Act advances out of committee in the WASHINGTON, DC Council.

Illegal suppression of earned sick time ballot in ORANGE COUNTY becomes an issue in county commission elections, leading to the ouster of a key participant.

Family Care Act passes out of GEORGIA Senate committee on an 8-2 vote, with support from the Director of the Georgia Restaurant Association.

CHICAGO City Council passes citywide earned sick time ordinance.

ILLINOIS Governor signs the Domestic Workers Bill of Rights into law.

The minimum wage in PORTLAND, ME increases to $10.10, setting the stage for a statewide ballot initiative.

GEORGIA Senate introduces the Family Care Act with bipartisan support.

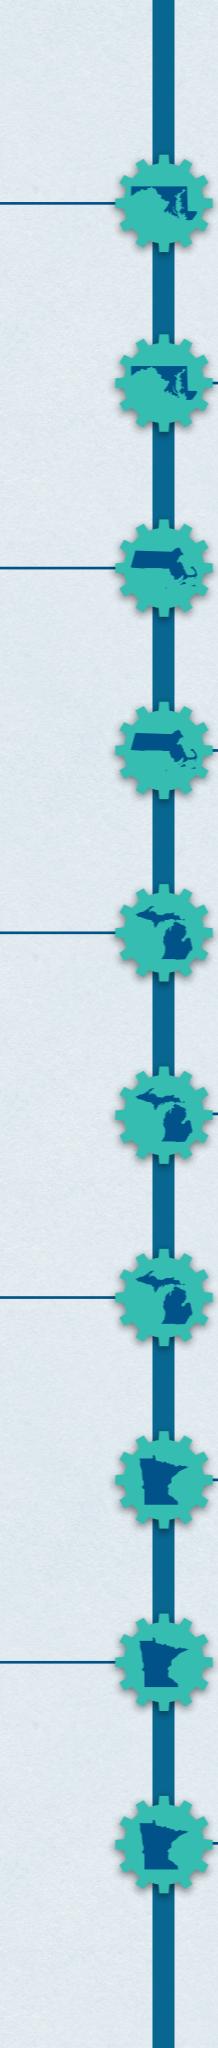

ILLINOIS Senate Executive Committee passes the Healthy Workplace Act.

ILLINOIS Senate introduces Family Leave Insurance Act.

COOK COUNTY passes earned sick time ordinance.

MAINE voters approve a ballot initiative in November increasing the state's minimum wage to $12.00 by 2020, and phase out the tipped wage by 2024.

MARYLAND'S Healthy Working Families Act passes House of Delegates.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY paid sick days law takes effect.

MASSACHUSETTS researchers release their paid leave grant report on the 7th Anniversary of the Lilly Ledbetter Act, summarizing models for setting up a fund.

MASSACHUSETTS Senate passes Paid Family Medical Leave and Temporary Disability Insurance.

MICHIGAN Senate and House introduces a statewide bill for paid sick days.

The Economic Justice Alliance of MICHIGAN collects over 130,000 signatures in support of earned sick time.

INGHAM COUNTY, MI extends its earned sick days policy for County employees to include part-time, seasonal and temporary workers.

The Workplace Partnership Group in MINNEAPOLIS holds 16 community listening sessions on earned sick time, drawing the participation of over 550 city residents.

SAINT PAUL mayor and City Council appoints a 29-member stakeholder group that meets for three months to craft ordinance recommendations.

DULUTH Mayor Emily Larson presents the need for Earned Sick Time in her State of the City address and announces the city will cover all of its own employees.

NEW JERSEY Legislature approves $15/hour minimum wage phased in over 5 years (Governor vetoes).

MORRISTOWN, NJ Council approves and implements Earned Sick Day ordinance.

Paid sick days will be on the October 2017 ballot in NEW MEXICO.

NEW YORK passes the strongest Paid Family Leave Insurance bill in the country.

NEW YORK introduces predictable and stable scheduling bill in both houses.

NEW JERSEY Legislature approves budget resolution for $3.5 million for NJ Family Leave Insurance outreach and education (Governor line-item vetoes).

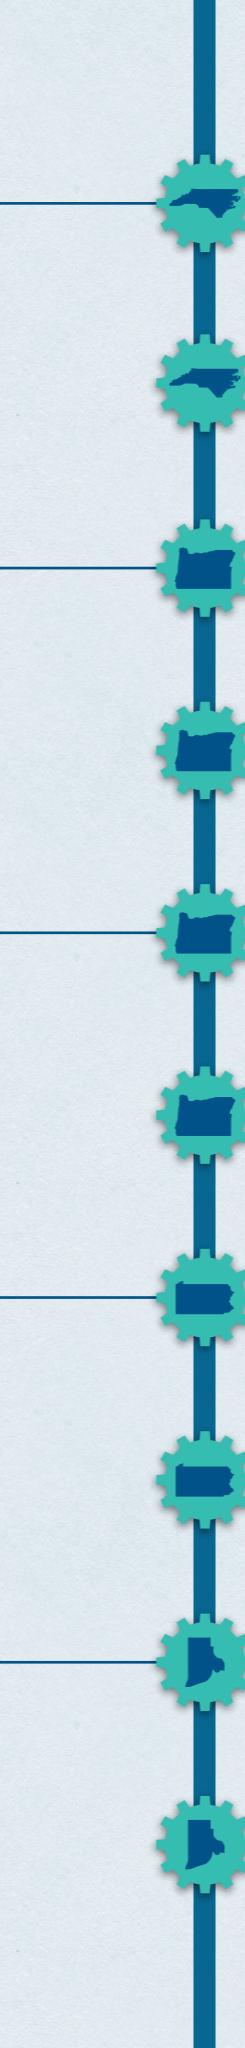

As part of the Healthy Workforce ABQ Coalition, Strong Families NEW MEXICO collects over 24,000 signatures for paid sick days in 2016.

NEW YORK CITY mayor signs Executive Order to provide Paid Parental Leave to 20,000 managers and non-unionized workers.

NEW YORK CITY introduces bill to expand Paid Sick Days law to include health and safety reasons related to domestic violence.

CITY OF GREENSBORO passes 6 weeks paid parental leave for City government employees.

DURHAM COUNTY passes 12 weeks of paid parental leave for County government employees.

WAKE COUNTY passes 6 weeks paid parental leave for County government employees.

OREGON legislators defeat several bills that would have rolled back or eliminated sick time protections for agricultural and certain other workers.

Time for Oregon launches—a broad coalition of community, labor and business groups working to enact paid family and medical leave in OREGON.

Paid family and medical leave goes on the 2017-2018 Fair Shot agenda in OREGON.

Family Forward OREGON and SEIU 503 create Careworks to focus on all aspects of the caregiving economy from child care to senior care.

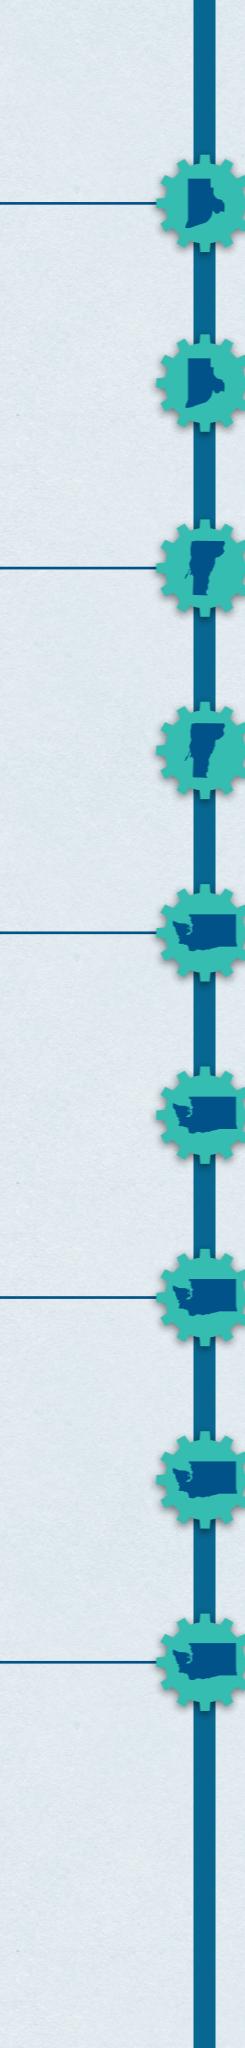

PENNSYLVANIA receives a state paid leave grant from the Department of Labor.

The PHILADELPHIA Wage Theft law takes effect.

Champions introduce a statewide paid sick days bill in RHODE ISLAND.

Champions introduce a bill to improve the RHODE ISLAND Temporary Caregiver Insurance program to increase participation and fairness for lower wage workers.

Researchers release a report on RHODE ISLAND Temporary Caregivers Insurance: Findings from the First Year, funded by a grant from the U.S. Department of Labor.

RHODE ISLAND releases a new website for Temporary Caregiver Insurance, www.RIPaidLeave.net, paid for by the Department of Labor grant.

VERMONT wins statewide paid sick days bill.

VERMONT coalition launches the Vermont FaMLI Campaign to pass a statewide paid family and medical leave bill.

SPOKANE passes sick and safe leave.

WASHINGTON'S House and Senate each pass pregnancy accommodation bills, but fail to reconcile for final passage.

WASHINGTON completes DOL research grant, including analysis of impact on TANF usage.

Initiative 1433 to raise WASHINGTON'S minimum wage ($13.50 in 2020) and adopt statewide sick and safe leave passes on November ballot.

Employees of King County, WASHINGTON can now take up to 12 weeks of paid parental leave.

WISCONSIN Family Medical Leave Expansion bill to create a statewide paid leave fund receives a public hearing in the Senate Government and Labor Committee.

MADISON, WI receives a $150,000 grant from the Department of Labor to conduct a paid family leave study.

The statewide engagement prompts paid leave campaigns for city employees in MADISON and EAU CLAIRE.

MADISON, WI County Board approves a minimum of $15 per hour beginning in 2021 for employees of the county and of companies awarded contracts.

FAMILY VALUES
@ WORK